

One month after the flood, the St. Ambrose Parish phone system is operational. There remains lots of work to do to rebuild the system, but at least two of the phones (and the answering service) are working. Thank you for your patience!